

Sample Thank You Letter #2

January 11, 2006

Ms. Davis:

It was a pleasure meeting with you on Friday. Thank you again for your time and consideration. If you're looking for a quick learner and experienced professional to positively impact your bottom line, you've found her.

As you review track record of success, you will note some of my most significant accomplishments and how they helped build the most profitable territories for my previous employers. Here is where I stand-out the most against my competition:

- Meeting and exceeding sales goals and expectations regularly
- Identifying fruitful prospects in my territory and bring them to the table
- Creating vital sales, marketing, and service unmatched in customer satisfaction and retention.
- Getting real results which increase profits

I am sure you will have follow up questions to our interview; please do not hesitate to call. I look forward to hearing from you soon on the next step I the interview process.

All the Best,
Kim Boucke
